CHEERFULNESS ON LAST DAY OF YEAR

But Optimistic Sentiment Was Forced and Was Not Maintained to Close.

IMPETUS WAS FROM ABROAD

Widespread Feeling of Encouragement Over Prospects of Improvement There.

NEW YORK, December 31.—The Stock Exchange community saw the expiration of the year 1907 without regret, but with some attempt at cheerful expectation for the coming year. The cheerful sentiment showed signs of being forced to a degree, and not maintained throughout the session. The principal incentive to the early advance in prices came from abroad, where there was quite a widespread feeling of encouragement over the prospect for quick improvement on the banking situation after the turn of the year. There was a pronounced recession in the private discount rate in London and confident assumptions that the Bank of England official rate would come down on Thursday.

The call money market was affected by the operations incident to the last day of the year, but not to anything like the extent that had been dreaded. Some of the selling late in the day was professional profit-taking, hased on the rise for several days past. There is less apprehension of commercial embarrasements, as a prompt relaxation is now tooked for which will add fair facilities for carrying mercantile credits. A process of liquidation in general business is regarded as essential, following the violent upheaval in the banking world. Last prices were about the lowest.

Ronds were strong. Total sales, par value, $2,830,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

NEW YORK, December 31.—Money in call firm, $@18 per cent.; ruling ate, 15 per cent.; closing bid, 12 per cent.; offered at 15 per cent. Time oans easier and more active; sixty asy and ninety days, 8 per cent.; six nonths, 7 per cent. Prime mercantila vaper, $@10 per cent. Sterling exhange easy, with actual business in sankers' bills at $4.8415@4.8420 for mand, and at $4.8415@4.8425 for sixty-lay bills. Commercial bills, $4.776. 4.7725. Bar silver, 53 1-2. Mexican lollars, 43.

The local exchange will be closed to-morrow and Thursday, but the disposition to avoid carrying over the holidays was not as marked as it usually is. On the other hand there was considerable buying by room tradeis immediately after the opening, and this brought about an advance in prices. Loca sortiment appeared to be largely builish it the absence of any great amount of selling and the trend of the market was upware
